Introduction To Our Hunts

High Peak prices are inclusive of everything required while you and your trophies are in their care. There are no hidden costs. High Peak has outright ownership of all the core components of their operation, including the vast hunting area and game within it. This means every dollar is directed toward providing you and your family or friends with the highest quality experience.

Our reputation is the assurance you need.

Alpine Species

Himalayan Tahr (best available) $6,500

Alpine Chamois (best available) $4,900

Helicopter Assistance (per flight hour) $2,200

Helicopter assistance may be required for tahr and chamois hunts when time, fitness or mobility dictate. In these instances, we recommend 3 hours' flight time apiece for tahr and chamois. We guarantee an opportunity at rifle distance for a mature animal within that time. If we don't, we will fly on or try again at High Peak's expense. Rate is for an Airbus AS350 B2 - actual hourly rate will depend on the aircraft type used. Only actual hours flown will be charged.

Other Species

Arapawa Ram (best available) $1,750

Pacific Goat (best available) $1,500

Captain Cook Boar (best available) $1,500

Meat Hunting (Fallow does & hogs, per day) $1,000*

Small Game (Rabbits, Possums, Hares) $500*

Small Game Night Shooting (per 2hr session) $500

Waterfowl (per day) $POA

Upland Game Birds $POA

*Complementary with any Red Stag, if in season.

Guided Touring Daily Rate $250

Includes a day's touring and lunch with guide and vehicle, per person.

Youth Daily Rate (under 18) $200

Includes transfers, full lodging and lodge activities for one youth accompanying a hunter.

Lodge Package with Wild Med includes return transfers from Christchurch, quality private hunting accommodation at the High Peak Lodge and include cooked or continental breakfast, hunter's field lunch, all beverages and three-course evening meal cooked by our private chef. Rates include rifle, ammunition and equipment, should clients not wish to bring their own.

Trophy fees will be made clear to the client by the guide, based on their assessment, prior to harvest of the trophy and the harvest undertaken only with the client's agreement. Clients are not responsible if the guide visually under-scores a stag.

Non-hunters are welcome and encouraged to join the hunters on their hunt. Non-hunting guiding daily rates are offered on the basis of one guide and a five-seat vehicle for the day. Some activities offered outside the scope of the daily guiding rate will incur an extra charge.

All High Peak hunts allow for the option of a professional photographer / videographer to capture your hunt, available upon request.

All High Peak hunts have a generous time allowance based on the type of trophy desired and the nature of the hunting area. Unless otherwise stated, hunt durations starts at a minimum of two full days and increases based on the number and type of trophies sought. If you take your trophy within the first three days, you can take any remaining time to seek other species or partake in one of our non-hunting experiences.

Trophy Fees

Trophy fees are payable on a per-animal basis and include photography, initial trophy preparation in the field, cleaning and delivery to our local taxidermist for completion or expedition to your taxidermist of choice. Trophies can be scored after your hunt if you wish; otherwise trophies will be visually assessed and fees will be applied based on the agreed score bracket as per the current High Peak Price List. If the trophy scores greater than the guide's visual assessment, the client will be charged the value of the visual assessment as agreed. If the score is lower than the guide's visual assessment as agreed, the charge will be adjusted downward. Game meats remain the property of the client and can be processed as required at additional expense to the client. Any remaining usable game meat will be otherwise fully utilized.

Helicopter Rates

Where necessity dictates due to fitness, time or other circumstances, we may recommend a helicopter for accessing Tahr, Chamois or Stag hunts. Rates are based on the utilization of a modern Eurocopter AS350 B2 turbine helicopter as the primary aircraft. Hunters should budget for up to three hours operating time per trophy for tahr and chamois. We guarantee an opportunity for a mature trophy within this time. Hunters will be billed for actual hours flown only. In the rare occurrence that we need to fly for longer, High Peak will cover this cost in full.

What's not Included

International or domestic flights unless otherwise detailed in your High Peak itinerary. Taxidermist fees, export documentation, crating and shipping of your trophy(s). Taxes and levies on exporting of trophies.

Personal travel and / or medical insurances. Accommodations and meals prior to or after hunting that is not listed on our Wild Med Adventures Website unless otherwise detailed as part of your itinerary. Discretionary purchases, tips and gratuities.

Tips & Gratuities

Tipping is not an integral part of New Zealand culture, however it has become the norm for our hunting industry in the case of exemplary service and results. As a guide, tips for guides usually start around $100 USD per day per hunter; for our chef and assistants around $50 USD per day per hunter. We suggest bringing some US currency in cash for tips.

Currency & Taxes

All prices quoted in $US and include 15% New Zealand Goods and Services Tax (GST) where applicable.

Risk Management

There are risks involved in trophy hunting. Although every precaution is taken to ensure the safety and comfort of our guests, our guests undertake all activities at their own personal risk, and no liability is accepted or implied by the owners and staff of High Peak or Wild Med Adventures. By paying a deposit on a booked hunt, a client accepts that any inherent risks are and remain their own responsibility. Wild Med / High Peak accepts no responsibility or liability for delays, losses, accidents, illness, death or damage prior, during or after the hunt. We strongly advise our clients take out comprehensive personal travel and medical insurances.

New Zealand Arrivals

A valid current passport is required for entry into New Zealand. A visa may also be required. Check with your travel agent, the New Zealand consulate, or your airline carrier office in your country for details of your requirements. High Peak can make these enquiries on your behalf pending the appropriate information being supplied. Prior to travel, ensure that you obtain suitable travel and medical insurance. Importation of firearms into New Zealand is a straightforward procedure; however clients need to ensure they have valid and current firearms permit from your country of origin. A visitors firearms permit will be required and must be applied for one month prior to arrival. A small fee will be payable to NZ customs. Please ensure all gear is either new or thoroughly clean and completely free from any organic material.

Again, the team at High Peak are happy to advise should you have any questions. On behalf of the Wild Med Team and the High Peak Team, we wish you all the best in your hunting endeavours and look forward to you joining us soon.
