Introduction

Mount Everest is the highest mountain in the world at the Himalayan Range of Nepal. Everest Base Camp is a hiking trip to visit the base camp of Mount Everest. The Everest Base Camp has been the world's premier mountain trek since the 1960s when Nepal opened its doors to commercial trekkers. It is a true dream of all hikers and outdoor lovers to visit the base camp of Mount Everest at least once in their life. Indeed hiking to Everest Base Camp is a wonderful trek and a once-in-a-lifetime journey. In short form, Everest Base Camp Trek is called EBC Trek. Everest Base Camp Trek is not only a trip for magnificent views of Mount Everest. Further, it is also an exploration of different beautiful Peaks in the Himalayan Range. You will also discover impressive glaciers, the mountain lifestyle, and the culture of the Sherpas - the most heroic mountaineers in the world. The EBC Trek will give you an experience of the distinctive alpine landscape with the endangered flora and fauna available in the Himalayan zone.

From Kathmandu, the trek begins after a 35 minute scenic mountain flight to Tenzing-Hilary airstrip at Lukla. From Lukla, the trekking starts following the upward path to the Sherpa capital of Namche Bazaar passing through the Dudh Koshi River valley with views of Thamserku and Kusum Kangaru peaks. It takes about two days to reach this Sherpa village, which is a central hub of the Khumbu area. Grand Himalaya has added three nights two full days of hiking around on our itinerary to allow for rest and acclimatization to minimize the effects of the Altitude - Acute Mountain Sickness (AMS). You then trek another two days to Dingboche (Alt. 4,260 m/13,980ft) before resting for another day for further acclimatization.

Another two days takes us to Everest Base Camp via Gorakshep, the flat field below Kala Patthar and Mt. Pumori. After the visit of the south base camp of Mount Everest the hiking to the top of Kalapathar (Alt. 5555m/18225ft), the black rock nearby Gorakshep provides a 360-degree awesome panorama of the world's tallest mountains of Mount Everest, Mount Lhotse, Mount Pumori, Mount Lobuche, Mount Nuptse, and other surrounding peaks. From this elevation the true height of Everest becomes clear. The entire south face of Everest is visible.

Afterward, the trekking will retrace down to Lukla following the places of Pheriche, Pangboche, Phortse, Namche, and Phakding. In Lukla, the trekking ends. The next morning from Lukla you fly back to Kathmandu. We will stay 2 nights in Kathmandu having a complete rest day and souvenir shopping day as well as our farewell dinner before departing on April 24th.

We require participants to have travel insurance that covers medical expenses, evacuation and repatriation. We Recommend Global Rescue for Evacuation Needs.

Please ensure that your chosen policy provides cover for the activities (Trekking with a guide) and localities in which you will travel Nepal, to elevations up to (Altitude 5,555m/18,188ft) above sea level).

Emergency Evacuation

Helicopter rescue services are available. Evidence of insurance will be required by the evacuation services before the helicopter will fly. And it can be landed anywhere in the Everest region. However, emergency evacuation cost is not included in your expedition cost.

Most helicopters struggle above 5000m. Often a helicopter can only take one or two persons at the limit of its operating altitude. There is no mountain rescue squad available, the victims have to be evacuated to a safe helicopter landing site preferably below 5000m.

A lock is recommended for securing your luggage.

Accommodation in Kathmandu

We are going to provide our valuable guests with necessary accommodation in a 4-star hotel "Shanker hotel" two nights before the trip and two nights after the trek, this charming historic palace has a peaceful garden with a swimming pool and is close to the touristic Thamel. Team members will be accommodated on a twin share basis in large en-suite rooms. Single rooms are available if you prefer, for which a supplement is payable. However, as Shanker hotel is one of the most popular and busy hotels in the valley, your early booking of the trip along with your deposit is highly required to make necessary accommodations and domestic flight reservations for your trip.

Accommodation on trek

Lodge accommodation will be provided during the trek up to base camp and on the way back to Lukla, which will be in the best available lodges in the area, team members will be accommodated on a twin share. Single occupancy rooms are really difficult on the trek. Most of the lodges in this area will have hot showers available at the charge of $5-10 per shower which participants will have to pay in cash; they do not accept Credit cards at all on this trek above Namche Bazar. All accommodation in lodges above Namche will be more basic as we are going to be in the remote wilderness. We are offering two nights in tent accommodation at Everest base camp at our camp site with our Everest climbers.

Meals on the Trek

Wild Med Adventures: EBC Trek 2024

Meals during the trek in teahouse can be selected from the menu according to individual choice, unless we have over 15 people. For large groups we will place a bulk order as the teahouse will find it easier to prepare a bulk order than individual meals. We will pick 2 or 3 choices and get a show of hands, the kitchen will thank us!

During a Tea House trek, you will usually have breakfast and dinner in the lodge; lunch will be eaten at one of the trail side restaurants. Every Lodge serves the traditional Nepali meal "Dal Bhat" which is composed of rice, vegetables and lentil soup. There will be a variety of different food items too, such as rice, vegetables, noodles, potatoes and soup. ## Itinerary disclaimer

The itinerary is the strongest part of our trip. Stick to it and you will have little altitude related illness problems, go one day harder and you can be in big trouble. In our decade long experience as guides and leaders, we have tested these programs out several times. Sometimes they will seem slow but it's about enjoying the trip not pushing hard and having a headache all day. You need a very good reason to go faster. Going slower is Ok; just watch your overall progress. Shifting up one day instead of having a rest day can mean headaches and you then have to have a rest day later anyway!

Every effort will be made to keep to the above itinerary, but as this is Adventure Travel in a remote mountain region, we cannot guarantee it. Weather conditions and the health of climbers can all contribute to changes. The trek Leader/Guide and cook will try to ensure that the trip runs according to plan, but an easy going nature will be an asset! Issues that result in changes to trip finish dates, hotel or air tickets requirements etc need to be communicated to grand Himalaya HQ ASAP.

Furthermore, our Trip Notes is a general guide to the trek and region we are going to visit.

Any mention of specific destinations or flora and fauna is by no means a guarantee that they will be visited or come across.

This is a very active trip, meaning you will be on the move most of the time, so pack as lightly as possible. Our trek costs are based on 1 porter between two guests ratio. Please inform us early in advance if you prefer to have personal porter at a small additional cost. Your trekking gear will be carried by the porter in a water-proof duffel bag that we will be providing to you in Kathmandu. The maximum weight limit per porters in Nepal is 30kg only (15kg per client) as there is 1 porter between 2 clients, which means the average weight of each member's duffel bag shouldn't exceed 15kgs max. Besides, the airlines company that flies to the trekking areas of Nepal has a similar policy of allowing 10Kgs of checked luggage and 7Kgs of hand baggage for free, for every passenger.

Some of your luggage can be left in Kathmandu (the hotel may charge a storage fee or free), but you will need to take all of your trekking gear with you.

Be a safe Trekker

1. Keep your eyes on your team mate while trekking and try to cohere with the group at all times. Trekking tracks in the Himalayas are often connected with caravans and nomads trail, trails to the villages nearby, the trekking route, domestic and wild animals trail, etc. These trails off the trekking track can often mislead you and consequently, people could wander off the track towards the hazardous door.

Wild Med Adventures: EBC Trek 2024

2. Try not to ascend rapidly especially during the first few days of trekking, no matter how physically tough you are. I presume trekking in the Himalayas is entirely different from trekking in the Alps and Andes. Keep your eyes all around you when trekking because there is an utmost possibility of seeing wild life and some other interesting sites, rather than speeding up towards the next camp and end up holding your heads rest of the day.
3. Drink plenty of fluids at least 4 liters a day. Keeping yourself hydrated after a days exhaustion is a must which can help prevent you from having AMS (Acute Mountain Sickness). Avoid drinking alcohol once you hit high altitude, which is above the altitude of 3500 meters. Make a habit of drinking water, tea, soup, juice and so on, instead of alcohol. Drinking alcohol at high altitude has been scientifically proved to be making your body more susceptible to AMS.
4. Make sure you do not overload your daypack as this could cause pain to your shoulders/back. The heaviest item in your daypack should be your water, so your daypack should get lighter as the day goes on. If your daypack feels uncomfortable at any point, stop and readjust it.
5. Ensure that your feet and other extremities are kept warm and dry at all times. There have been cases of people not adequately dressed getting frost bite at high altitude due to the freezing temperatures. Remember, although the temperatures at the top may not seem cold, wild chill can reduce this temperature even further. Always be prepared with something to cover your face, warm gloves and thick walking socks.
6. We advise that you take some plasters/a blister prevention kit with you to keep your feet in good condition. Don't lace your boots too tightly/loosely and if they feel uncomfortable readjust them and apply plasters when necessary.
7. Keep your head torch in your daypack, always. You never know when and where you end up walking in the dark.
8. Walking poles can aid your trek, providing additional support and balance. Walking poles also helps to significantly reduce knee strain, particular during decent.
9. Your guides and Sherpas are very much experienced about the places you are trekking. So we always recommend you to follow their instructions and help yourselves by helping them to create a magnificent and successful trip.

Our Entire Wild Med Teams as well as Grand Himalaya would like to wish you safe and successful trip.

Important Notice

- Activities like: Skiing, Climbing Mountain, Trekking, Paragliding, Wing suit, Drone etc. without permit is illegal in Nepal & is strictly prohibited, we kindly request all of our guests to inform us before joining the “Everest Base Camp” if you are considering bringing Wing suit, Para glide or Drone for additional fun. We would be delighted to help you with issuing required permits from related government office in Kathmandu prior to the departure for the trip accordingly at an additional permit fees applicable. Grand Himalaya will not be liable for penalties otherwise.
